The senior Mrs. Clegg is survived by a husband, two sons and three daughters. The younger Mrs. Clegg is survived by her husband and a 2-year-old daughter. Mrs. R. S. ### BADLY MIXED UP.

Abraham Brown, of Winterton, N. Y., had a very remarkable experience; he says: "Doctors got badly mixed up over me; one said heart disease; two called it kidney trouble; the fourth, blood poison, and the fifth stomach and liver trouble; but none of them helped me; so my wife advised trying Electric Bitters, which are restoring me to perfect health. One bottle did me more good than all the five doctors prescribed." Guaranteed to cure blood poison, weakness and all stomach, liver and kidney complaints, by Wm. Comstock & Sons, druggists, 50c.

BICYCLIST WAS KILLED

Failed to See Rig and Ran Into the Horse.

Because Frank Hall, a contractor of B. G., 46 years old, was nearsighted, he lost his life last Thursday night. He was riding a bicycle down Main street and failed to notice a rig driven by N. R. Harrington, a lawyer, who with his partner, F. A. Baldwin was driving in the opposite direction. Mr. Hall ran full tilt into the horse and was thrown from his wheel to the pavement. His skull was fractured. The accident happened just at dusk, 5 o'clock, and Mr. Hall died at 10 o'clock. He leaves a widow and two children.—Sentinel.

FATALLY BURNED

North Baltimore Man Killed by Gas Explosion.

Scott Painter, 33 years old was fatally burned in the boiler house of his oil well at his home in North Baltimore on Thursday last, by a gas explosion. He had been steaming a tank of oil and had turned the water back into the boiler. Wishing to ascertain how much water was in the boiler he lit a match to look at the cock. There was a gas leak he didn't know of and an explosion followed. A great burst of flame enveloped striking him full in the face, which was frightfully burned. His clothing was torn off and he was thrown 20 feet from the boiler. He has a wife and three children.

A WEDDING INCIDENT.

On Saturday last, a man of about 50 years and a woman of about the same number of summers, accompanied by a young man and a girl of about 20 and 17 years, called at the Clerk's office for marriage licenses. They were directed to the Probate Judge, who provided them with the necessary papers. They then went down to Squire Nearing, where the Squire made two of the four. The two brides were mother and daughter; and the grooms, father and son. The old man proceeded to pay the Justice when he found his money running short. He exclaimed that it cost a lot more money to get married here than it did in Michigan; that they had just had a pretty fine dinner, but if he had known it was going to cost so much to get married, they would have cut down the cost of the dinner.
